Hollywood designer receives the gift of inspiration from youth leadership alumni

Hollywood designer Charlie Lapson and the Able Trust chair committee recently met for high tea at the Chesterfield Hotel in Palm Beach.

The gathering was held to announce Lapson's commitment to bring a bit of Hollywood to the ninth annual Gala, set for Friday, March 16, 2007 at The Mar-a-Lago Club.

During the afternoon, 19-year-old Danielle McGill, of Pembroke Pines, who has cerebral palsy and is an Able Trust Youth Leadership alumnus, shared her experiences as an individual living with a disability.

"If it were not for the Able Trust, I would not be here and able to move out of my parents' house and into a home of my own," McGill said. "The Able Trust's Youth Leadership Forum is the best thing that ever happened to me."

Leslie Sacks is gala chairwoman; Cathy Polselli is co-chairwoman; Fonda Lee is a committee member.

McGill will be a special guest at the gala and tell her story.
